

Dear School of Dance Students & Families,

We hope this email finds you and your loved ones healthy and well. Given the ongoing pandemic and Omicron surge, we have some important updates to share with you. Please read this email thoroughly.

Announcement:

To ensure the safety of our students, families, faculty, and staff, all School of Dance classes for La Academia (Levels 1A-5), Encuentros, Los Pasitos, and Adult Programs will take place ONLINE Monday, January 10th, 2022 through Saturday, January 29th, 2022.

What does this mean for students?

- You will take your classes via Zoom during this three week period
- You will receive the Zoom links to your classes by this Thursday, January 6th, including BH online protocols for students. This will be sent to your primary email address that is in your MindBody account.
- Return to in-person classes is tentatively set for Monday, January 31, 2022
- Students will continue to utilize Google Classroom to receive supportive learning material from their teachers

What does this mean for student teaching assistants?

- Teaching assistants will be asked to assist their regular classes via Zoom and will receive a detailed informational email from Rebecca Tsivkin this week

What does this mean for the La Academia Pre-Professional Training Program Winter Showcase?

- Details on how this will affect the La Academia Winter Showcase will be communicated later this week

If you are concerned about accessing classes online or have any questions, please email school@ballethispanico.org.

Sincerely,

School of Dance
